SUBJECT.

Affairs of the Sri madhwa Swami temple at Thorthahalli.

From

The Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga Dt.

Letter No 7/2 Dated 2nd July 1906.

1. A petition No 1708 dt 29th October 1904 was received from Subbanna Char, archak of the Sri madhwa Swami temple at Torthahalli, stating that the temple had been endowed with large inam lands and that his brothers wives were in the enjoyment of lands without attending to the Puja in the temple. This was forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner for enquiry and disposal with a request to report the action taken. He states that the temple of Sri madhwa Swami is situated to the west of Sri Rameswara Devaru temple at Thorthahalli and that the Sri Ganesa

These have been endowed with certain main lands for the maintenance of archak for rendering puje service therein (as per list appended) yielding about Rs 150/- together with a malnad cash Grant of Rs. 5-12-0. He further reports that the petitioner who is employed as a Kolkar in the municipality and two others (Peters ~~owers brothers~~ brothers' wives) are not attending to their duties properly according to the condition of the Grant. The Deputy Commissioner recommends that the management of the institution together with its land and cash endowments may be assumed by Government in the Muzrai Dept and placed in the hands of the Amildar of the Shorthakalli Taluk duly appointing a sole competent archak for daily worship to the deities concerned.

Submitted with a draft calling for a copy of the Deed of Gift referred to in para 2 of the Dy Comrs letter

The draft approved by the Secretary was accordingly issued and the Dy. Commissioner has submitted in original the registered Deed of gift dated 10th Sept. 1900 executed by Satyabhamamma widow of Rama bhat (the late Archak of Sri Madhwa devaru) in favor of Krishnaveniamma, her sole daughter married to one Srinivasa bhat, the executor's own brother.

Paper under disposal

(Copy A).

The executant therein states that she unfortunately became pregnant after the death of her husband Rama bhat that she was consequently kept out of caste, and that as desired by her husband, she has transferred her share of the Puja Hak of Madhwa Devaru, her rights and possesof its land endowments including the cash inam and also certain lands in the Salejanagal. Village endowed to the Sri Vyasaraya matt as particularized on the overleaf of the said deed.

Submitted. } Now the question for decision is whether Satyabhamamma, the widow of the Bammandapur Pujari, who was thrown out of caste about 2 years prior to the execution of the Deed in question, and who consequently lost her hak for the Puja Bammand in question, was competent to transfer her so called hak to her daughter. If not, the management will to be taken over by Govt.—

The Petr himself says that he got the temple repaired at a cost of about Rs 300, and prays that the lands belonging to the temple might be resumed from the possession of his brothers' wives and restored to him to enable him to conduct the Puja &c in the temple regularly in future. Sir, Adverting to your Official Memo No. 1925 and subsequent reminder No. 3325 of 29th November 1904, and 14th February 1906 respectively forwarding for report petitions received from Subbanna Achar, Archak of Sri Madhava Swamy temple at Tirthalli, I have the honour to state as follows:

1- The Temple of Sri Madhava Swamy is situated at Tirthalli to the left of the Sri Rameshwara Devaru and that Sri Garuda Gopala krishna Devaru is an image carved on the front portion of the Stone Vrindavanam just opposite to

to the Temple of Madhava devaru.
Both of these deities are jointly endowed with Devadaya Inam lands as noted in the list appended hereto, for the maintenance of Archaks rendering Puja Service therein.
A Sum of Rs 5-12-a as malwad Cash Inam is also endowed to Sri Madhava Devaru. It is reported that these lands fetch an annual rental of about 150 chitta Kandies of paddy (of 50 Seers each) valued at about Rupees 150/-. The petitioner who is a Kolkar in the Municipality of Tirthalli, belongs to the family of the Archak of the deities referred to but he has not been worshipping them according to the condition of the grant.

2. The petitioner and his two deceased brothers' wives seem to have unauthorizedly effected division of temple lands amongst themselves and that they have have been in enjoyment of their respective shares. One of the wives of the petitioner's deceased brothers is said to have transferred her right and possession of the Inam lands of her share to her daughter, a minor, by means of gift which seems to have been duly registered.

3. The allegations of the Petitioner and the wives of his deceased brothers that arrangements are made for rendering Puja to the deities referred to, do not appear to be true.

4 I therefore request orders of the Government for assumption of the management of the Institution concerned together with its land and cash endowments by the Amildar of Tirthalli Taluk in the Muzarai Department and also for appointment of a sole competent Pujari or Archak for daily worship worship to the deities concerned.

5. The Kanarese correspondence ending with Tirthalli Taluk Amildar's report No 460 of 2nd June 1906 together with the petitions received with your letter under reply are herewith sent for reference.
